Dawnings of amber and amethyst eyes;
Soft in the south wind the laughter of leaves;
Breath of the poppy and death of the rose,--
Midsummer comes and midsummer goes!

Dapple on cheek of the apple and plum;
Honey-bees droning a die-away hum;
Swales in a shimmer and dales in a doze,--
Midsummer comes and midsummer goes!

Midsummer Song
Clinton Scollard
(1860-1932)

Darting of dragon-fly, flutter of moth;
Barley in windrow and wheat in the swath;
Hush-song and thrush-song!--the mother-bird knows!--
Midsummer comes and midsummer goes!

Moonlight and noonlight all glamour and gleam;
Hillside and rillside a thrall to the dream;
Capture the rapture before the days close!--
Midsummer comes and midsummer goes!

Fall Programs

Registration for all programs must be in person at the Library and will be on a first come, first served basis.

Class size is limited

Registration will begin early in September - date will be published on our webpage and in the Library soon.

Story Hour - ages 3 - 5

Story Hour is a fun and interactive program designed to help promote reading to children.

Your child will listen to a story, learn rhymes, songs and finger-plays, complete a craft and have a snack at each class.

Toddler & Me - ages 1 - 3 and Baby & Me - 0 - 12 months

In the first years of life, children's bodies and minds grow exponentially. Both classes are designed to provide parents with simple tools to help their children take advantage of this crucial time and reach their greatest potential. We hope to provide parents with the resources that will empower children to learn and to grow through the written word.
