Quicksilver by Mildred Keiser

You can't hold magic in your hands
 Or touch a memory
 Or lock a sunset in a room
 Where it will always be.
 But when you see October start,
 If you are one like me,

You want the shining afternoons
 To last for all eternity.
 You want the sumac's splash of fire
 And soft winds to ever blow;
 And though the splendor breaks your

You want each glorious day preserved;
 You long to hold them fast;
 Your soul oftentimes yearns to keep
 Those things that cannot last.

A Book

by
Emily Dickinson

There is no frigate like a book
To take us away,
Nor any coursers like a page
Of prancing poetry.
This traverse may the poorest take
Without oppress of toll;
How frugal is the chariot
That bears a human soul!
